

Pet Therapy at GAAMHA

Pictured above is the view captured by a STREAM staff member during our Field Day at The Otter River Sportsman Club.

Joe began visiting GAAMHA's old. They are very soft to the touch because, as Joe explained, Greyhounds have hair like humans not fur like other dogs. According to Joe, Greyhounds clean themselves like cats and do not need frequent baths. Also, he brushes them daily which help keep them clean. Lucky and Moon seldom bark and are very well behaved. They sleep most of the day except when taken for walks or when going out to perform therapy. Lucky has taken a liking to me. Joe placed her in my lap, in my wheelchair. She gave me kisses on my face and right hand. During the visit, Moon remained on the floor and allowed people to cuddle and pet him. They are always very obedient, following Joe's every command. I would highly recommend pet therapy to everyone because it makes me and my co-workers feel good.

Friday Lunch Club - Papa Gino's Review

A group from STREAM went to Papa Gino's every Friday for the entire month of August. I chose to go on August 29, 2014. My co-workers John H., Betty Ann L., and Denise C. came with me and Ray W. was the STREAM staff that got to go as well. It was a very nice short ride to get there. We entered the restaurant and sat at a good booth near the window. After I finished looking at the menu, I decided to order a small cheese pizza and a Diet Pepsi. The pizza was ready promptly and hand delivered to my table. The pizza was very hot and the crust was thin and crispy. The sauce was not too spicy and the cheese was good and stringy. Overall, I would recommend going back.
